TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Please ensure that you read carefully through all terms and conditions.

By accepting an offer of a place you are agreeing to the following:

- University reserves the right to amend or withdraw an offer where it comes to our attention that the applicant (or party authorised to act on behalf of an applicant) has taken or is taking, more than one academic qualification that meets our entry requirements, provides fraudulent or false information or has not disclosed information which would have affected the outcome of their application.
- Requests to change programme during the application stage or on arrival at the University are not guaranteed and are subject to availability and meeting the terms of entry for that specific programme.
- In accepting your place you are confirming your fee status. If you think your fee status is incorrect, please refer to our Fee status guidance or contact us at ad-feestatus@exeter.ac.uk
- To abide by the University of Exeter Admissions Policy.
- To abide by the regulations for students. All students are required to abide by the University's Charter, Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations as a condition of enrolment. These include, without prejudice to the generality of that statement, academic regulations, arrangements for appeals and grievances, disciplinary regulations and regulations covering the use of the Library and IT facilities. Copies are available on request from sid@exeter.ac.uk and can be accessed by following the link to Information for Current Students.

It is the responsibility of applicants to:

Provide full and accurate information in an application to the University;
Disclose to the University any circumstances or relevant unspent convictions which would:
- prevent you from participating or completing your chosen programme of study;
- or restrict you from engaging in University life;
Notify the University of any changes or corrections to the original application.

YOUR PROGRAMME OF STUDY

Programme contents and information about learning and teaching for your chosen programme can be viewed on our website. The University reserves the right to make variations to programme contents, entry requirements and methods of delivery, and to discontinue, merge or combine programmes, both before and after a student's admission to the University, if such action is reasonably considered necessary by the University and will notify you via email where a substantial change is made to your programme of study.

In the event that, prior to the student commencing the first term of study for any programme described in our prospectus, the University discontinues the programme, the student may either (1) withdraw from the University without any liability for fees; or (2) transfer to such other programme (if any) as may be offered by the University for which the student is qualified. If in these circumstances the student wishes to withdraw from the University and to enrol in a course at a different University, the University shall use its reasonable endeavours to assist the student.

Once the student has commenced the first term of study, if:

- (a) the University's ability to deliver programmes or other services in accordance with the descriptions provided is compromised by circumstances beyond the control of the University (e.g. third party industrial action), the University will use all reasonable endeavours to minimise disruption as far as it is practical to do so;
- (b) the programme is cancelled or substantially varied from that described in the prospectus for reasons other than circumstances beyond the University's reasonable control, the University will use reasonable endeavours to provide a suitable replacement programme. If the student does not wish to accept the replacement programme, the student shall be entitled to withdraw from the programme. In the event of such withdrawal the University shall make an appropriate refund of course fees.

DATA SHARING

In preparation for your arrival at the University we would like to share some of your personal information (such as full name, date of birth, Exeter Student Number, your email address/es and your University of Exeter username (once allocated) with the Guild of Students. This information is not be shared until you have been offered and accepted an unconditional offer at the University and will be used to allow you to sign up for appropriate Guild events in advance of your formal registration with the University. If you do not wish to share your data, you must notify us within 10 days of accepting an unconditional place at the University by emailing ad-data-share@exeter.ac.uk, quoting your full name, student number putting DATA SHARE-OPT OUT in the header of your email.

The University works with a number of organisations around the world who assist with academic checks on submitted documents and quality assurance. In circumstances where the University needs to consult a third party organisation in order to clarify degree certificates and transcripts in order to make a decision we would like to share your information. If you could benefit from pre-departure assistance we might refer your application onto our network of appointed agents in country. If you do not wish us to share your information with approved third party organisations you can opt out by emailing ad-data-share@exeter.ac.uk within the next 10 working days. If you email please quote THIRD PARTY-OPT OUT.

EMAIL

We will use email for the majority of our communication with you so please ensure you provide your Exeter Student Number and the email address you supplied when applying in correspondence with us. Please check your emails on a regular basis and inform us of any changes to your contact email address as soon as possible to avoid any delays.
